A PRAYER ATTRIBUTED TO ST FRANCIS

Lord make me an instrument of your peace
Where there is hatred, Let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
And where there is sadness, Joy.
O Divine Master grant that I may
Not so much seek to be consoled
As to console;
To be understood,
As to understand;
To be loved as to love.
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned.
And it is in dying that we are Born to eternal life.

we rejoice in our present, as we look forward with eager eyes to the future amidst the challenges of unemployment, gang violence, hardships and poverty.

In the few months coming, we are to embark on all remaining fund raising efforts coupled with thanksgiving as we celebrate the Feast of our Patron Saint. We pray and give thanks for stewardship teachings that are to come into practice. We pray for our Archdeacon and priest, Revd Christopher Swartz, his wife Charlotte and sons, Dominic and Damien. Our supporting priest, Revd Cedric Williams, his wife Hendrina and his children Avril, Morne and their families.

Creator God, we thank and praise you for all that you are. There is none like you and we bless Your name. Father, we pray for your people of every age and in every circumstance.

Father, life is beautiful but it is also hard. Thank you that we do not have to go through this life alone. Help us along the way, Lord, to see the beacons you have given us that show us the way to You. Father God, let your voice of truth drown out all the voices of the world that seek to draw us away from you.

We pray for the parents, god parents and families of the babies who were baptised this year. Lord, may the promises that they have made remain in their hearts as they raise, nurture and love the very precious children that you have given them. We pray also for the young people who were confirmed this year. Lord, may the promises that they have made remain in their hearts and make them sensitive to your guiding Spirit each day. Lord, may those who have been baptised and confirmed always feel welcome, loved and understood in our parish and may they find all that they need here.

We pray for the elderly in our parish and for the many years of work and love and all the contributions they have made to our lives. Bless them Lord, in the times when they struggle - spiritually, physically, emotionally or financially. May they also always feel welcome, loved and understood in our parish and may they find all that they need here.

Loving Lord, bless us all now and always, we pray with ever thankful and humble hearts. Amen
